The Haute Grandeur Global Hotel Awards™ are the most prestigious achievement for the luxury hotel industry. Recognised as a guaranteed golden stamp of excellence, these distinguished awards laud exceptional contributions from outstanding hotels honouring only the best of the best. To win this coveted accolade, an establishment must excel on all levels.

With an emphasis placed on quality feedback from guests, rather than the quantity of votes by a panel of judges, these unbiased and credible results speak for themselves, setting the benchmark for a standard of excellence worldwide.

“Haute Grandeur Global Awards™ raise standards of excellence in hospitality globally, inspiring establishments to outperform past achievements,” says Haute Grandeur Founder and President, Marinique de Wet. “Though the winners have reached the pinnacle of success, their toughest challenge still lies ahead – because attaining success is hard, but remaining successful is even harder. That is why we must set ambitious goals and continue to push our limits.”

Neeraj Seth, Director of Marketing Communications & Public Relations for Kandima Maldives said: “At Kandima, we go out of our way to ensure that every guest has the holiday of the lifetime and gets a wide choice of activities to suit their personal needs. We are thrilled that our levels of excellence have been recognised by the Haute Grandeur Global Hotel Awards.”
